

August 2008

Dear Colleague,

CEQA Workshop on September 11 Explores Role Of Local Agencies in Addressing Climate Change

No matter one's stance on the global warming issue, we in the real estate industry need to follow developments as they unfold. We encourage you to attend the CEQA and Climate Change workshop on September 11 in Encinitas. It will address legal and practical questions that cities and counties face. Snow Properties is one of fifteen participating sponsors. The workshop is co-hosted by the Local Government Commission and the Office of the Attorney General.

Under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), local agencies have a vital role to play in California's approach to global warming. The full implications of this law are not yet fully understood.

Speakers will include Attorney General Jerry Brown and members of his office, leaders from the Governor's Climate Action Team, and other modeling experts from throughout the State.

Workshop Date & Time:

Thursday, September 11, 2008
Program: 9:45 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Registration and Continental Breakfast: 9:00 a.m.

Encinitas Community Center
1140 Oakcrest Park Drive
Encinitas, CA 92024

Cost: $75

Reservations close September 3, 2008. To register or for more information click here.

Forward this message to a friend or colleague.

Snow Properties provides project management services to developers, financial institutions, owners and managers of real property assets in Southern California. Its expertise spans three decades and all stages of real estate development.

Disclaimer: This newsletter is not intended as a recommendation to take action on real estate-related activities or transactions. It is a summary of recent market news. The selection of featured information reflects perspectives as of publication date and may be subject to changing market conditions. The publisher recommends you seek professional advice from an attorney, financial planner or accountant before making any financial decision.

You have received this message because you are a friend or associate of Snow Properties. If you wish to be removed from our e-mail list, please click here. We apologize for any inconvenience.